Anne Is My Friend

Anne is Tania's doll. Tania loves Anne. She takes Anne with her to bed and the dinner table. She has tea with Anne and blows bubbles for Anne to see. She takes Anne to the park too.

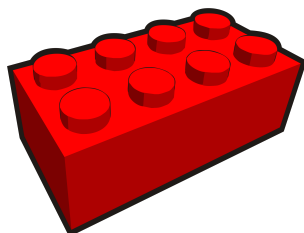

Sonia is Tania's baby sister. Tania loves Sonia. She shares her toys with Sonia. But she does not want to share Anne with Sonia. Sonia cries.

Mama asks Tania why she will not share Anne with Sonia.

Tania says, "Sonia is mean to Anne. She pulls her hair and sits on her and throws her around the room. Anne gets hurt."

Mama explains, "That is because Sonia does not know that Anne is your friend. She thinks Anne is toy, like the Lego blocks or a ball."

Tania gets angry. "Anne is not a toy. She is my friend. I love Anne."

"Yes. I know. You should say that to Sonia. Then she will be nice to Anne. Then you can all play together."

"Okay mama. I'll tell Sonia. If she is nice to Anne, then we can all play together."
