

The Dog Named Bob

I am a dog.

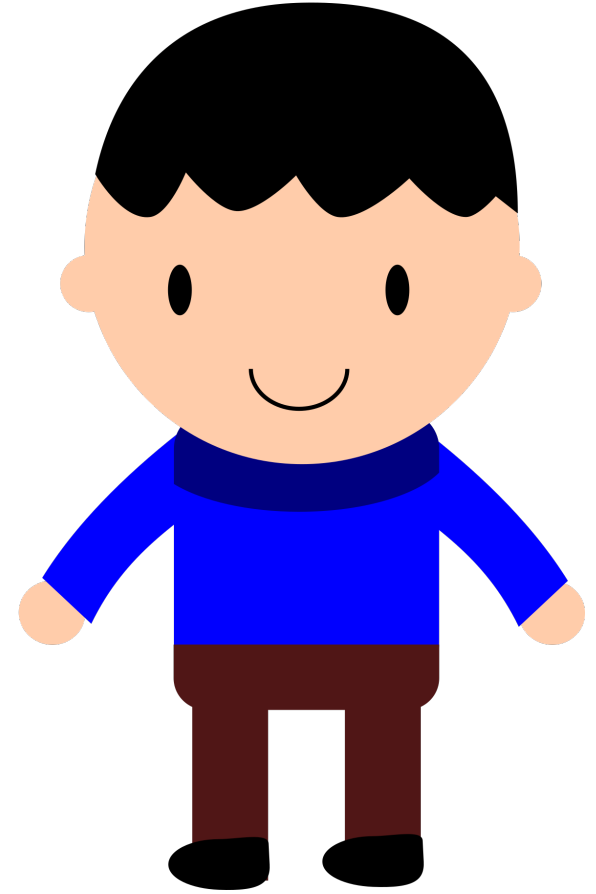

My name is Bob.

I guard the house.

That is my job.

Sera and Ben play with me.

They are as kind,
as kids can be.

They rub my tummy

and pat my head.

They give me a treat,

when I play dead.

They toss a ball,

or throw a stick.

I catch it in my mouth.

It is a neat trick.

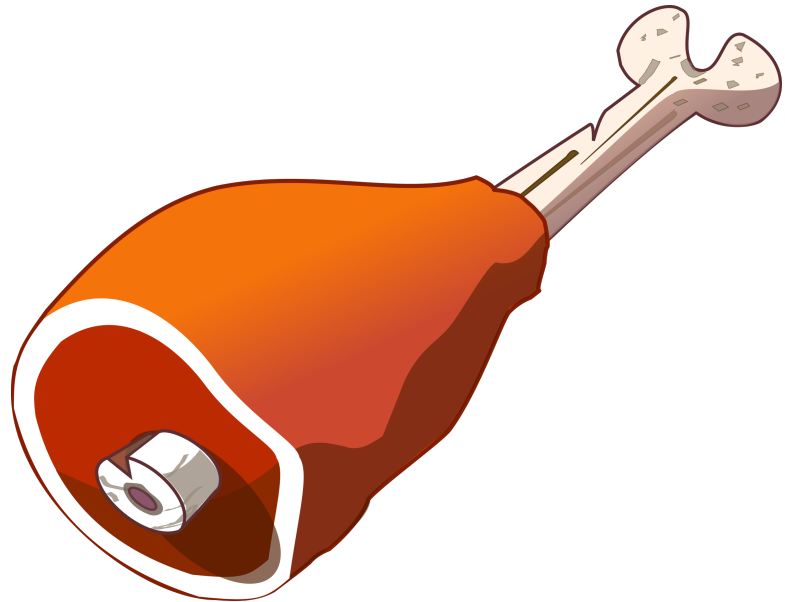

Dinner is fun.

Sera shares her meat.

Ben gives me some dessert.

I love any thing sweet.

When it is time to sleep,

I go to my bed, by the door.

I'll know if something is wrong.

Don't be fooled by my snore.
