It's only Words ...

Words they conquer

Words they fail

Enamour the strong

And alienate the frail.

Words of passion

Words of power

Words of love

Words devour

Words of strength

Words of failure

Words that sting

And words that cure

Words of wisdom

Cleverly arranged

Are worth a 1000

Static images

Words are weapons

Powered by emotion

On which they play

The song of surrender

It is the task of the word smith

To orchestrate a symphony

With the frequencies of the heart.
